PREAMBLE

We, the members of the Dolphin Democrats, united in a common purpose, to strengthen and further the ideals and principles of the Democratic Party, which recognizes and promotes diversity, good will, and respect for all members of the community, do hereby adopt and uphold these by-laws.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Dolphin Democrats a Chartered Affiliate of the Florida Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Allies (LGBTA) Democratic Caucus.

ARTICLE II. OBJECTIVES, MISSION

Section 1. Objectives.

The objectives of this organization shall be:

A. To stimulate active interest in political and governmental affairs;
B. To strengthen and to further the ideals and principles of the Democratic Party;
C. To provide reasonable and ongoing financial support to the Florida LGBTA Democratic Caucus;
D. To promote participation in the political process among Democrats;
E. To educate the public, including the greater LGBTA+ community, about the qualifications and positions of the duly selected nominees of the Democratic Party in national, state, and local campaigns;
F. To foster good fellowship among Democrats;
G. To encourage voter registration; and
H. To advocate issues without discrimination on grounds of race, color, creed, gender, sex, age, religion, economic status, ethnic identity, national origin, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity and expression.

Section 2. Mission.

Further, it shall be the mission of this organization to foster goodwill between (LGBTQA) members of the Democratic Party and the community at large. We seek individual freedom in the framework of a just society and political freedom in the framework of meaningful participation by all citizens.

ARTICLE III. DEFINITIONS

Unless otherwise stipulated or construed by context, the following are definitions applicable throughout these Bylaws:
a. Days. Days shall mean Calendar Days. If a deadline falls on a Calendar Day that is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal or Florida State holiday, such deadline shall be moved to the very next Calendar Day.

b. “Electronic means” is defined as real-time, live voice participation such as telephone or video conference, but does not include non-voice participation via live text messaging, emails, instant messaging, or such other as may be decided from time to time by the Board of Directors in its procedures.

b. Majority. Without prejudice to any special majority herein defined, a Majority in any General Meeting, Annual General Meeting, Board of Directors Meeting, or Committee Meeting, shall mean 50% plus 1 of the voting members present.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. Types of Membership, Eligibility for Membership, and Associate Membership.
   a. Any Democrat registered to vote in Broward County shall be eligible for full membership with all the rights and responsibilities of members.
   b. Membership will become immediately effective upon the payment of dues and verification of affiliation with the Democratic Party (either through presentation of a current voter registration card or confirmation of party registration.)
   c. Associate members may participate in the activities of the organization, may be appointed to committees, attend meetings and speak at meetings with the permission of the President or the Presiding Officer, but shall not make motions, vote, nor hold office. The following are eligible for associate membership:
      i. Other Democrats, from outside the geographic area;
      ii. Democrats, from within the geographic area, who anticipate or experience limited participation in the organization;
      iii. Individuals who reside for all or part of the year in the geographic area and who are not eligible to register to vote, and others who wish to identify with the Democratic Party; and
      iv. NPA registered voters or businesses who wish to associate with the organization.

Section 2. Dues.
The organization, by vote of the Board, shall determine the annual dues of each category of membership or affiliation. Dues are payable upon joining and, thereafter, in advance on or before December 31st of each year. On January 31st, of each year the Membership Committee shall notify members who are thirty (30) days in arrears. Those renewing members whose dues are not paid within 30 days thereafter shall be automatically placed in inactive status and shall not be considered members. The voting privileges of those members in arrears will be suspended until dues are paid. Dues paid shall entitle one to membership in the organization (as either a member or associate member).

Section 3. Resignation from Membership.
Members desiring to resign from the organization shall submit written notice to the Secretary or President.
Section 4. Membership Term
Membership is on an annual, calendar year basis from January 1st through December 31st. All memberships paid in September will be considered for the following year’s membership, giving 3 months free extra.

Section 5. Code of Conduct and Anti-Harrassment/Discrimination
All members agree to abide by the Code of Conduct and Anti-Harrassment Policy upon joining the Dolphin Democrats. No Code of Conduct or Loyalty Oath shall be used which has the effect of requiring members of the Democratic Party to condone or support discrimination on the grounds of race, color, creed, gender, sex, age, religion, economic status, ethnic identity, national origin, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity and expression. There is zero-tolerance for any behavior in violation of this policy. Violations of this policy are to be reported to Grievance Committee in writing.

Section 6. Use of Membership and Mailing Lists.
Due to the unique nature of the Organization and the need to protect the privacy of members, the organization consistent with Florida Democratic Party rules, shall preserve the confidentiality of information provided by members. The release or use of the membership and mailing lists of the organization and related contact information shall be prohibited, unless authorized by the Board or general membership. Unauthorized release or use of such lists or Information shall result in the immediate revocation of membership in the organization for a period not to exceed two years. To ensure due process, the Grievance Committee shall investigate the circumstances and consequences of such unauthorized release or use and shall report its findings and recommendations to the Board, as expeditiously as possible.

Section 7. Attendance.
Voting members shall make every attempt to attend all general membership meetings. The Chair of the Membership Committee will keep track of attendance. Voting members who are absent four (4) or more meetings within the membership term as outlined in Section 4 of this Article shall have their membership automatically converted into Associate Membership status pursuant to Section 1 of this Article. Members subject to this Section will have their full membership status reinstated by submitting a written request to the Chair of the Membership Committee or the Secretary.

ARTICLE V. ANNUAL PARTY CONTRIBUTION AND RE-CERTIFICATION.

Section 1. Contribution.
The organization shall pay an annual contribution to the Florida LGBTA Democratic Caucus as prescribed by the Caucus and Florida Democratic Party rules.
Section 2. Charter Re-certification.
In July of every odd numbered year, or at such time otherwise required by the Florida LGBT Democratic Caucus the organization shall apply to the Certification Committee of the Caucus for charter re-certification. Failure to do so shall result in the forfeiture of all rights and privileges of the use of the word Democrat, Democratic, or derivative thereof.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS AND ADVISORS.

Section 1. Officers.
The elected officers of the organization shall be composed of four Executive Officers: President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer and eleven Directors. Every member of the Board of Directors shall actively serve on a committee. Failure to actively serve on a committee shall result in the immediate forfeiture of their board position. The President may appoint, with the consent of the Board of Directors, a Historian and two non-voting, non-elected advisors: a Parliamentarian and a Sergeant-at-Arms. All officers shall perform the duties prescribed by Robert’s Rules of Order, the parliamentary authority for the organization, as amplified and modified by these bylaws.

Section 2. Term of Office.
The Executive Officers and Board of Directors shall be elected by open ballot to serve for a two (2) year term or until their successors are elected. The aforesaid, Term of Office, shall take effect upon passage of the ByLaws. Term of Office shall begin at the close of the Annual Meeting, or at the time in which they are elected if filling a vacancy. In order to provide for staggered Terms of Office, at its February 2014 Annual General Membership Meeting, five (5) Directors shall be elected for a one (1) year term. Thereafter, elections shall be held annually at the time designated with the remaining six (6) of such Directors duly elected at the February 2015 Annual General Membership Meeting and continuing in the same manner prescribed herein.

Section 3. Office-Holding Limitations.
No member shall hold more than one elected office at a time. The President and the Vice President shall be elected together as a ticket. The Executive Officers of this organization (President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer) shall be limited to two (2) consecutive terms only. This does not preclude any current Executive Officers from being eligible for a different Executive Officer position. Upon relinquishing the office for a one-year period, previous office holders shall again be eligible to be re-elected to the same position for another two (2) consecutive terms. There shall be no term limits on election as Director or appointment to Parliamentarian, Sergeant-at-Arms, or Historian. Two or more members of a household, married couple, or a registered domestic partnership may not concurrently be Executive Committee members of this organization.

Section 4. Adequate Opportunity to Participate.
The organization shall publicize fully the legal, practical, and pertinent procedures for selection of the organization’s representatives and officers; such publication shall be timely to assure notice to all interested Democrats, whether members or prospective members, such that they may have adequate opportunity to participate.

a. Nominations. At the regular meeting held on the second Wednesday in November, the President shall appoint a Nominating & Election Committee, comprised of at least three members.

b. Election. Prior to the annual meeting, the Committee shall prepare one ballot with the names of each duly qualified candidate for each position. Each ballot shall be printed with the name and address of the organization at the top, followed by the position to be voted upon, with the candidates’ names listed on the ballot. Voting for officers will be by open ballot, in accordance with Florida Democratic Party rules, at the annual meeting in February. Members must be present to vote. Absentee and/or proxy voting is prohibited.

c. Procedure. The Nominating & Election Committee will preside over and conduct the election process as follows:

i. At the annual meeting, additional nominations shall be in order and voters may write in that nominee’s name and vote for that nominee on the line provided. Following each vote, the Committee shall collect and count ballots, using additional tellers, as necessary, and will announce the results at the end of the count.

ii. A majority of those present and voting is required for election of the Executive Officers; if there is no majority for an Executive Officer the nominee receiving the lowest number of votes is removed from the next ballot. The candidates receiving the most votes shall be elected. The Committee will afford any candidate the right to a recount, after which the Committee will certify the results.

iii. To be eligible to vote, participate in elections, and be a candidate, a member must have been a member by the forty-fifth (45th) day prior to the annual meeting and maintain membership through the date of the annual meeting.

iv. The Secretary shall provide to the Nominating & Election Committee a list of members eligible to vote and be candidates thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting and on an updated basis thereafter, as required by the Nominating & Election Committee.

v. If a candidate for office runs unopposed or the number of candidates for directorships equals or is less than the number of directors provided for in these bylaws, such candidates may be elected by acclamation.

vi. All ballots shall be kept by the local representative of the Florida LGBTA Democratic Caucus for a period of thirty (30) days following the date of the election and shall be available for review by any member. All ballots shall, thereafter, be transmitted to the Florida LGBTA Democratic Caucus.

ARTICLE VII. DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. President.
The President shall preside at all meetings of the organization and Board of Directors; shall be a member ex officio of all committees (except the Nominating and Elections Committee and the Audit Committee); and shall appoint the Chairs and members of all standing and special committees (except as provided in these bylaws). The President, or the President’s designee from among the Board members, shall represent the organization at county, district, state, and... national meetings and functions and shall act as spokesperson for the organization. The President shall serve as chief executive and administrative officer and shall provide guidance to the committee Chairs.

Section 2. Vice President.
The Vice President shall assist the President in the discharge of the President’s duties and shall assume that office in the absence, or inability to serve, of the President. The Vice President shall serve as Co-chair of the Strategic Planning Committee.

Section 3. Secretary.
The Secretary is the recording officer of the Board and general membership meetings and is custodian of all records of the organization, except those assigned to other officers or committee Chairs by these bylaws. These records include, but are not limited to, the minutes of all meetings, committee reports, the official membership roll, lists of committees and their members, bylaws, special rules of order, and standing rules. The Secretary shall issue the call of meetings, prepare an order of business for the presiding officer, and in the absence of the President or Vice President shall call a meeting to order, until a Chair pro temp is elected.

Section 4. Treasurer.
The Treasurer shall be the custodian of all funds of the organization; shall keep an accurate record of receipts and expenditures; shall present a statement of all income, expenditures, accounts payable, and income receivable, in a format acceptable to the Board, at each meeting, occurring since the previous meeting; shall make such interim reports as directed by the Board or organization, and shall prepare and present an annual statement of expenses and receipts. The Treasurer shall provide a quarterly report to the Audit Committee in sufficient time for its review and approval. All reports, signed by the Treasurer (and the Audit Committee for quarterly reports), should be distributed, to the extent practicable, to members at least two days prior to each Board meeting. The Treasurer shall present a written summary financial report, including cash balance on hand less outstanding obligations, at each regular general membership meeting, and shall have the detail available for member review. The Treasurer shall disburse funds as authorized by the Board. Checks in the amount of $500 and above shall be signed by the Treasurer and an additional Executive Officer. The Treasurer shall maintain a fidelity bond during the term of office, which bond shall be paid by the organization. The Treasurer, with the approval of the Board, may appoint deputies to receive and account for funds. The Treasurer shall chair the Finance Committee.

Section 5. Parliamentarian.
The Parliamentarian shall advise the President, other officers, committees, and members on matters of parliamentary procedure. The Parliamentarian shall not vote on any matters before the organization, except for the balloting for officers and candidate endorsements. The Parliamentarian shall chair the Bylaws and Rules Committee. Directors of the Board may act as the Parliamentarian if appointed by the President.

Section 6. Historian.
The Historian shall prepare a narrative account (including a pictorial collection) of the organization’s activities during the Historian’s term of office which, when approved by the organization, will become a permanent part of the organization’s official history. The Historian, at the time of the adoption of these bylaws, shall compile a history of the organization from the time of its founding in 1982, as the Dolphin Democratic Club, through the date of these bylaws. Directors of the Board may act as the Historian if appointed by the President.

Section 7. Sergeant-at-Arms.
The Sergeant-at-Arms shall preserve order at meetings and remove any person found to be disruptive at meetings, as directed by the presiding officer, and shall ensure that appropriate physical arrangements and furnishing are in place for each meeting. Directors of the Board may act as the Sergeant-at-Arms if appointed by the President.

Section 8. Board of Directors (Excludes Executive Committee).
The Board of Directors shall provide top level oversight and strategic direction to the organization. It also services to advise and consult with the President. Every member of the Board of Directors shall actively serve on a committee. Failure to actively serve on a committee shall result in the immediate forfeiture of their board position.

No Director or Executive Officer running for public office may sit on the Campaign, Public Relations, or Nominations Committees. Any such Director or Executive Officer shall automatically be recused from any vote and deliberation related to their race on any Committee, the Board, or at a General or Annual Membership Meeting. Notwithstanding the above, a Director or Executive Officer running for public office may deliberate and vote to endorse themselves at a General Membership meeting pursuant to the Endorsement procedures in Article XII.

Section 10. Loyalty Oath.
Officers shall execute a loyalty oath, in the form and manner prescribed by the rules of the Florida Democratic Party, immediately upon taking office. No Democratic Loyalty Oath shall be used which has the effect of requiring members of the Democratic Party to condone or support discrimination on the grounds of race, color, creed, gender, sex, age, religion, economic status, ethnic identity, national origin, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity and expression.

Section 11. Maintenance of Membership.
All officers shall pay dues by December 31st provided there are forty-five (45) days prior to the Annual Meeting. Otherwise, the Officers must pay forty-five (45) prior to the Annual Meeting. Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws, failure to comply shall result in immediate removal from office.

All records created and maintained by officers in the discharge of their duties shall be the exclusive property of the organization. Officers shall be custodians of such records during their term of office and shall physically present them at the annual meeting (or such other time when their term ends) to ensure the smooth transfer of all records to succeeding officers immediately upon the election of their successors.
ARTICLE VIII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Section 1. Board Composition.
The officers of the organization shall constitute the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Duties and Powers of the Board.
The Board of Directors shall have full power and authority over the affairs of the organization, except as reserved specifically to the general membership in these bylaws. The Board shall be subject to the orders of the organization and none of its acts shall conflict with action taken by the organization.

Section 3. Board Meetings.
Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held monthly. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President with three (3) days notice.

Section 4. Quorum.
A majority (50% plus 1) of the voting members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

Section 5. Voting.
No vote at a Board meeting shall be taken by secret ballot. Proxy voting shall be prohibited.

Section 6. Attendance
Board members shall be required to attend all general and board meetings unless excused by the President. The Secretary will keep track of attendance. Attendance in person by Board members is required. If necessary, due to unavoidable circumstances, Board members may attend the meeting via electronic means in compliance with this policy. If a Board member misses four (4) board meetings, the Executive Committee will make a recommendation as to what action will be taken and will consult the procedures recommended for removal of Board members as noted in the ByLaws. Unexcused absences from two (2) consecutive regular Board meetings shall constitute abandonment of office.

Section 7. Conflict of Interest.
When a member of the Board has a financial or personal interest in any matter coming before the Board, the affected person shall fully disclose the nature of the interest and withdraw from discussion and voting on the matter. Any transaction or vote involving a potential conflict of interest shall be approved only when a majority of disinterested Board members determine that it is in the best interest of the Organization to do so. The minutes of meetings at which such votes are taken shall record such disclosure, abstention and rationale for approval. The Florida LGBTA Democratic Caucus Conflict of Interest Policy shall be incorporated into these bylaws to provide guidance and definitions on conflicts of interest and disclosure procedures.

Section 8. Limitation of Liability.
No member of the Board acting in his or her official capacity shall be liable for damages resulting from the exercise of judgment or discretion in connection with the duties or responsibilities of such member of the Board except to the extent dictated by law.
Section 9. Hold Harmless.
The organization shall indemnify and hold harmless to the full extent allowed by law any member of the Board who is or was acting in his or her capacity as a member of the Board.

Section 10. Insurance.
The organization shall purchase and maintain liability insurance on behalf of the Board of Directors to the extent permitted by law, regardless of whether the organization would have the power to indemnify such member of the Board against such liability.

Section 11. Emergency Authority of the Executive Committee.
In case of emergency, if a special Board meeting cannot be called in a timely fashion, the President may convene a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board, composed of the President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer as voting members and the Parliamentarian as a non-voting advisor. A quorum shall be three voting members. At any such meeting, the Executive Committee may take action and vote on matters of urgent interest to the organization, provided that such vote is unanimous to be valid. Any such action taken must subsequently be ratified by a vote of the Board or the general membership at the next regularly scheduled meeting.

ARTICLE IX. GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS.

Section 1. Regular Meetings.
Regular general membership meetings of the organization shall be held on the second Wednesday of each month, unless otherwise ordered by the organization.

Section 2. Annual Meeting.
The regularly scheduled general membership meeting in February shall be known as the annual meeting at which time the membership will elect officers receive reports of officers and committees, and address any other business that may arise.

Section 3. Special Meetings.
Special general membership meetings may be called by the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors, in writing, and shall be called upon by the written request of twenty (20%) percent of the organization’s membership. The purpose of the meeting shall be stated in the call. Except in cases of emergency, at least seven (7) days’ notice shall be given.

Section 4. Quorum.
Twenty (20%) percent of the organization’s membership shall constitute a quorum.

Section 5. Meetings Open to All Democrats.
The time and place for all public meetings of the Chapter shall be publicized fully in such a manner as to assure timely notice to all interested persons, and shall be open to all members of the Democratic Party Regardless of race, color, creed, gender, sex, age, religion, economic status, ethnic identity, national origin, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity and expression. All meetings shall be in a facility accessible to the disabled.
Section 6. Voting.
Notwithstanding the voting procedures outlined in Article VI and Article XII, no vote at a meeting of the organization shall be taken by secret ballot. Proxy voting shall be prohibited.

ARTICLE X. VACANCIES AND REMOVAL.

Section 1. Vacancy of President.
If a vacancy occurs in the office of President, the Vice President shall become President and fill the Vice President position in accordance with Article V. In the event both the offices of the President and Vice President are vacant simultaneously, the Secretary shall become the temporary President and the Treasurer shall become the temporary Vice-President until the next General Membership meeting where there is a quorum.

Section 2. Other Vacancies.
Other vacancies shall be filled, on an acting basis, by appointment of the President, until the next regular meeting of the organization, provided that ten (10) days notice is given of the vacancy, at which time the position will be filled for the remainder of the term, by nominations from the floor. Election shall be by open ballot; members shall indicate their choice for the vacancy and shall sign and print their own name. Election may be by acclamation, if only one nominee is presented for the vacancy. All ballots shall be kept by the local representative of the Florida LGBT Democratic Caucus for a period of thirty days (30) following the date of the election and shall be available for review by any member. All ballots shall, thereafter, be transmitted to the Florida LGBT Democratic Caucus, which may hold such ballots for three years, after which time they may be destroyed.

Section 3. Removal.
Any officer and/or member may be removed from office upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members at any regular or special general membership meeting after at least ten (10) days written notice to the membership that a motion for the removal of such officer will be considered at such regular or special meeting. The removal may be for cause, including, but not limited to, malfeasance, misfeasance, neglect of duty, abandonment of office, incompetence, permanent inability to perform official duties, violating the Code of Conduct or conviction of a felony. Any absence from four (4) Board meetings shall constitute neglect of duty. Unexcused absences from two (2) consecutive regular Board meetings shall constitute abandonment of office.

ARTICLE XI. COMMITTEES.

Section 1. Finance Committee.
Promptly after each annual meeting in February, the President shall appoint a Finance Committee, comprising of the Treasurer and at least four other members. It shall be the duty of the committee to prepare a budget for the fiscal year, beginning the first day of July, and to submit it to the Board in June for approval. The Finance Committee may from time to time submit amendments to the Board.
Section 2. Bylaws and Rules Committee.
The Bylaws and Rules Committee, chaired by the Parliamentarian, shall review all changes to the bylaws, special rules, and standing rules and shall report on any such changes to the Board and general membership as appear necessary and feasible from time to time. The committee shall review proposed amendments to the bylaws expeditiously and shall report its recommendations at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting. It shall also draft, review, and revise, as necessary, a code of conduct for both Board member and individual members of the organization, for approval by the general membership.

Section 3. Campaign Committee
The Campaign Committee shall work toward the election of all Democratic candidate nominees for the area covered by this organization, including county, state, and national candidates; shall organize voter registration efforts; shall serve as the clearinghouse for candidates’ requests for volunteers; and shall mobilize the general membership and the LGBTA community to vote. The Campaign Committee shall report to the organization on the status of candidates and issues, recommending actions as appropriate. The Campaign Committee shall create a questionnaire (Approved by the board) for elected positions on the ballot. If completed and returned, the questionnaire shall be posted on the Dolphin Democrats website prior to any endorsement vote or election in which the candidate appears on the ballot.

Section 4. Nominating and Election Committee.
1. The duty of this committee is (a) to publicize fully the election and requirements electronically via website, email or social media, at least forty-five (45) days in advance of the annual meeting; (b) to recruit members for office ensuring outreach to underrepresented groups; (c) to ensure the eligibility (consistent with these bylaws) of all members seeking office; (d) after ascertaining their willingness to serve, to nominate a candidate for each office to be filled at the annual meeting in February; and (e) to conduct the election process. No committee member may be nominated or elected to any office to be filled at the annual meeting; and

2. At the regular meeting held on the second Wednesday of January, the Committee shall report and accept further nominations from the floor (subject to the committee's subsequent determination of eligibility). The Committee will afford each candidate a reasonable opportunity to submit campaign material to the general membership, which will be distributed along with the call for the annual meeting.

Section 5. Audit Committee.
The Audit Committee, comprising of at least three members, shall be appointed within ten days of the annual meeting. The duty of the committee shall be to audit the Treasurer’s books, the annual financial report, quarterly reports, or any other financial reports required to be audited by the Board or general membership. The President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer shall be ineligible to serve on such committee, although they may be called upon to provide all information required by the committee to carry out its duties.

Section 6. Membership Committee.
The Membership Committee shall recruit new members, notify members of renewals and arrearages and confirm that all persons desiring membership are registered Democrats and meet other requirements appropriate to their category of membership and ensure that all activities, including meetings, are advertised in an appropriate and timely manner. It shall verify the membership status of persons attending meetings for voting purposes. It shall recommend rules and procedures relating to membership requirements and dues, including the manner and form of initial application and renewals.

Section 7. Events & Fundraising Committee
The Events and Fundraising Committee shall explore and recommend manners of fundraising and shall coordinate all such fundraising activities. They shall plan the speaking program for each regular general membership meeting of the organization, as appropriate.

Section 8. Strategic Planning Committee
The Strategic Planning Committee, co-chaired by the President and Vice President, shall develop a strategic planning document for Board and general membership approval. Thereafter, it shall maintain, update, and revise the plan (as necessary), coordinate with other standing and special committees to ensure congruence with the strategic plan, and shall monitor achievements against plan benchmarks.

Section 9. Grievance Committee
The Grievance Committee shall investigate and resolve grievances and disputes arising between or among members, as set forth in these bylaws. It shall be comprised of at least five (5) members.

Section 10. Communications Committee
This committee shall administer media, public relations, and technology. This shall include, but not be limited to, the Dolphin Democrats website, social media outlets, press relations, and increasing public awareness.

Section 11. Other Committees
Other committees, standing or special, may be established by the Board or general membership, from time to time, deem necessary to carry on the work of the organization.

Section 12. Committee Records and Reports
All records created and maintained by committees in the discharge of their duties shall be the exclusive property of the organization. Committee chairs shall be custodians of such records, shall make copies of all records quarterly for submission to and retention by the Communications Committee, and shall transfer all records to succeeding chairs immediately upon the appointment of their successors. All committee reports requiring action at a Board meeting shall be in writing and should be received by Board members at least two days in advance of the meeting.
ARTICLE XII. ENDORSEMENTS.

Section 1. In General.

a. All requests for endorsements shall be submitted to a member of the Executive Committee at least fifteen (15) days in advance of the next General Membership Meeting. Requests may be submitted prior to the filing deadline, but the vote by the General Membership shall not take place until after the filing deadline. Endorsements shall be voted on in person, by secret written ballot, at a General or Annual General Meeting.

b. Endorsements for candidates are for one (1) race only—the specific race for which an endorsement was requested, and lapse upon completion of said such race;

c. A separate endorsement shall be required in the case of a Runoff election, following the same procedures as indicated for any other election.

d. Without prejudice to the special rules for Judicial candidates, Questionnaires must be completed, signed, and returned to info@dolphindemocrats.org.

e. A copy of the completed and signed questionnaire shall be circulated by the Communications Committee Chair and/or Secretary to the General Membership of the Dolphin Democrats in writing at least ten (10) days before the General Meeting of the Organization where the endorsement vote shall take place;

f. There shall be no co-Endorsements;

g. In order to cast a vote to endorse candidates at a General Meeting, Members must be current registered Members of the Organization at least 30 days prior to the respective General Membership Meeting.

h. The Campaign Committee shall preside over and conduct the voting process, which shall include, but not be limited to, voting procedures, keeping control of the ballots, and counting the votes cast.

i. The Dolphin Democrats shall not be required to notify candidates of deadlines for filing requests for endorsement, and no notification given, formally or informally by any member of the Board of Directors or Membership, shall be binding upon the Organization.

j. For the purposes of these Bylaws, “Support” is defined as any of the following on a volunteer or paid basis:

   i. Endorsing a candidate or campaign;
   ii. Donating or contributing financially to a candidate or campaign;
   iii. Fundraising for a candidate or campaign;
   iv. Being a part of a Host Committee for a candidate or campaign;
v. Attending a fundraiser, meeting and greeting, or any other campaign function of a candidate or campaign; or

vi. Otherwise campaigning, canvassing, strategizing, volunteering, or working on a phone bank, on behalf of a candidate or campaign.

k. Officers, Directors, and General Members of the Dolphin Democrats may identify themselves in their respective positions with The Dolphin Democrats when participating in activities for candidates officially endorsed by the Organization.

l. All members of the Dolphin Democrats are free to support any registered Democrat who is a candidate in any way they so choose, so long as they do so as individuals and not identifying as members, Directors and/or Officers of The Dolphin Democrats, if said candidate has not been officially endorsed by the Organization.

Section 2. Races with only One Democratic Candidate.

Without prejudice to applicable federal, state, and local law, in a General, Primary, Special or Runoff Election, the Dolphin Democrats may endorse and/or support, any registered Democratic candidate after the filing deadline for such race, if there is only one Democratic candidate in such race.

Endorsement in this case shall require only a majority vote of the members present at a regularly scheduled General Meeting of The Dolphin Democrats at which a quorum is present.

Section 3. Races with More than One Democratic Candidate.

a. Without prejudice to applicable federal, state, and local law, the Dolphin Democrats may endorse and/or support one (1) or more registered Democratic candidate(s) over one (1) or more other registered Democrat candidate(s) in a General, Primary, Special, or Runoff Election in which there is more than one (1) registered Democratic candidate running for office, subject to the general procedure indicated in this Article.

b. Every registered Democratic candidate who is in compliance with the general procedure indicated in this Article, shall be given the opportunity to address the membership prior to the vote;

c. A vote of two-thirds (2/3rd) of the voting members present shall be required to endorse a candidate. Notwithstanding the above 2/3rd voting requirement and recognizing the variety of election procedures involving more than one Democratic candidate and seats up for election, the Campaign Committee may devise a voting procedure with multiple rounds to remove candidates with the lowest votes prior to the final 2/3rd vote between two candidates for the subject election.

d. No write-in candidates shall be considered for endorsement or permitted to speak before the General Membership.
Section 4. Nonpartisan Races

Pursuant to the rules in Sections 2 and 3, above, and as regards endorsements for Democratic candidates, the Dolphin Democrats may endorse candidates in nonpartisan races provided that said candidates are registered Democrats.

Section 5. Judicial Races

Without prejudice to such limitations as are set by law and other authorities, and notwithstanding the rules for non-Judicial Races, the Dolphin Democrats may recommend candidates for judicial races. To that end:

a. All judicial candidates are automatically invited to attend a candidate forum. The candidate forum shall not be held during any official meetings of the Dolphin Democrats. Individual invitations shall not be sent to judicial candidates;

b. Recommendation votes shall be held by judicial seat. There shall be but one round of voting. The candidate receiving the largest number of votes in that round shall be the candidate recommended by the Dolphin Democrats. In case of a tie, no further vote shall be taken, and no candidate shall be recommended by the Dolphin Democrats for the judicial seat in question.

ARTICLE XIII. MEDIATION AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES.

Section 1. Grievance Resolution through Mediation.

Members may avail themselves of internal mediation procedures for resolving disputes and grievances amicably. Such disputes and grievances shall involve violation of the codes of conduct, as approved by the general membership, or conduct otherwise involving the organization which tends to injure its good name, disturb its well-being, or hamper it in its work. A member shall submit, in writing, to the Grievance Committee any charges and complaints against another member or officer. The committee shall invite the parties to attend, testify, and submit any pertinent documents or evidence at sessions called to resolve the dispute. The committee shall meet and mediate the dispute within fifteen days of the date of receipt of the grievance. Committee members who are parties, witnesses to the dispute, may otherwise have a real or perceived conflict of interest, shall recuse themselves. It shall recommend an equitable resolution to the parties involved and, if acceptable to them, shall report its findings and the resolution to the Board.

Section 2. Grievance Resolution through Board Decision.

If such resolution is not acceptable to the parties, the committee shall forthwith report its findings and recommendations or sanctions, including revocation of membership not to exceed two membership years, to the Board. A two-thirds vote by the Board and general membership is required to terminate membership. The committee Chair shall promptly forward, by certified mail, to the parties involved a copy of the committee’s findings and recommendations, together with the time and place of the next succeeding meeting of the Board at which time the matter will be considered, provided that at least ten days written notice is given of the purpose of such meeting. Decisions of the Board, except the recommendation to revoke membership, are effective immediately. Such decision or recommendation may be appealed at the next regular general membership meeting, except the annual meeting. Decisions may also be appealed to the Florida LGBTA Democratic Caucus, in accordance with its prescribed grievance procedures.

Section 3. External Grievance Procedures.

Disputes and grievances may also be resolved by The president and officers of the Florida LGBTA Democratic Caucus, utilizing the Caucus’s grievance procedures. Such resolution may be appealed to the Judicial Council in no more than forty-five (45) days from the date of said decision.

ARTICLE XIV. PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY AND AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS.

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the organization in all cases in which they are applicable and where they are not inconsistent with these bylaws, any special or standing rules of order the organization may adopt, the rules of the Florida LGBTA Democratic Caucus, Florida Democratic Party and National Democratic Party, and any statute applicable to this organization that do not authorize the provisions of these bylaws to take precedence.

Section 1. Dissolution.

In the event this organization wishes to dissolve, a resolution stating the date of dissolution and reasons for the same shall be adopted by a majority vote at a regular general membership meeting, provided that such resolution is submitted in writing at the previous meeting. When the organization disbands for any reason, the assets and funds of the organization, after all debts are satisfied, shall become the property of the Florida LGBTA Democratic Caucus.

Section 2. Amendment Process.

These bylaws may be amended at any regular general Membership meeting by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, provided that the text has been reviewed by the Bylaws and Rules Committee and the Board, and provided further that it is forwarded to the membership for its consideration at the next general membership meeting, consistent with notification, and that such text and the Committee’s report, its recommendation, and the Board’s recommendation are provided in writing to the membership no less than ten days prior to the meeting. Bylaws, and any changes or amendments thereto, together with copies of the minutes of the meeting at which such amendments were adopted, shall be filed with the Florida Democratic Party within thirty (30) days following adoption.

Section 3. Effective Date.

All amendments shall be effective immediately, but shall be subject to the approval of the Florida LGBTA Democratic Caucus, the Florida Democratic Party Committee on Clubs, Organizations, and Caucuses. Any amendment or change, which is not approved, shall be deleted from the bylaws. Actions taken pursuant to such non-approved amendment or changes shall be null and void.
ARTICLE XV. MISCELLEANOUS.

Section 1. Annual Awards

a. Jamie Bloodworth Leadership Award. The Dolphin Democrats shall present the Jamie Bloodworth Leadership Award to any self-identifying female who has shown excellence in leadership and/or sponsorship of issues improving the human rights of the LGBT+ community at large. The journal of any Dolphin Democrats awards banquet shall contain a section memorializing the life and accomplishments of Jamie Bloodworth, as it relates to Broward County human rights issues.
